The Good Samaritan

Rev. Karen Lindvig

Samaritan empowers city goers to learn the stories of the people they pass by daily that are living unsheltered. The free app provides a simple, effective way to help.

Small Bluetooth "beacons" are given to the homeless through nonprofit partners. If you have the Samaritan app, when you pass by a beacon holder, you'll receive a notification with the person's story and a way to give directly toward that person's critical needs via their digital beacon account.

The beacon holder meets monthly with counselors to plan spending and can spend money at partnered merchants. Over time, these touchpoints result in relationships that have led to housing, employment, and more

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

Luke 10:25-37 New Revised Standard Version (NRSV)

²⁵Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he said, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?” ²⁶He said to him, “What is written in the law? What do you read there?” ²⁷He answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself.” ²⁸And he said to him, “You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.”

²⁹But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

³⁰Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. ³¹Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. ³²So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. ³⁴He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. ³⁵The next day he took out two denarii, [The denarius was the usual day’s wage for a laborer] gave them to the innkeeper, and said, ‘Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.’ ³⁶Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?” ³⁷He said, “The one who showed him mercy.” Jesus said to him, “Go and do likewise.”
