

*Join the Information Session on
Law Enforcement Agencies FBI & ICE*

Thursday, Dec 7, 2017
6:30 PM
Pacifica Institute

ICE

Ryan W. Bruett
Supervisory Special Agent, FBI

Melissa Nitsch
Community Relations Officer, ICE

Join the public forum to learn more about what is and is not FBI & ICE. An opportunity for community engagement with the two federal agencies and asking questions.

Speakers

Melissa Nitsch

Melissa Nitsch is the Community Relations Officer for Immigration and Customs Enforcement, covering Washington, Oregon, and Alaska. In this role, she works with community stakeholders to raise awareness, provide information, and increase understanding of ICE's mission. Prior to working at ICE, Melissa worked on foreign affairs for U.S. Customs and Border Protection and the U.S. International Trade Administration.

Ryan W. Bruett

Ryan W. Bruett began his FBI service in 2006 as a Special Agent assigned to the Seattle Division, Olympia Resident Agency. There he investigated violent crime, white collar crime, international and domestic terrorism, and crimes on Native American reservations and U.S. Army Fort Lewis. In 2015, Mr. Bruett returned to Seattle as a Special Agent and investigated Civil Rights Crimes and Transnational Organized Crime. In 2017, Mr. Bruett was promoted to Supervisory Special Agent and now supervises a squad responsible for investigating Public Corruption, Civil Rights Crimes and Transnational Organized Crime.

RSVP